

I Philip H Munday of Lower Metcalfe County do make and proclaim this my last will and testament

First. I desire that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be fully paid off and satisfied.

Second. It is my will that out of the proceeds of my estate that the following named of my children Lewis John & Munday George H Munday and Myrtle C Hagg and shall receive Five Dollars each

Third It is my will that all residue of my property both real and personal of any character what so ever shall be given to my daughter Katie Munday and the same is hereby bequeathed to her and her heirs forever. The reason of a seeming difference in the treatment of my children afores-
-mentioned is that I am fully satisfied that all that may be received by the aforesaid Katie & Munday will not more than compensate her for services rendered to myself.
