

Sarah
Munday's
Will

I Sarah Munday of the county of Harrow and State of Kentucky feeling that the time allotted to me on this earth is drawing near its close do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, to wit:

After first commending my soul to God who gave it, I hereby give and dispose of my earthly effects in the following manner:

1st It is my will in order that my single daughters to wit: Nancy Catharine Munday, Lizzee White Munday and Ina Lee Munday may be provided during the time they may remain single with a means of support, that all of my real estate which included two houses and lots situated in the town of Franklin in the county of Simpson and State aforesaid, and also the farm upon which I now reside remain unsold, that the proceeds arising therefrom be appropriated to the support of my three daughters above mentioned, and a sufficiency of the remainder be applied to pay for the support of my two single sons to wit: Robert Harrison Munday and Thomas Finley Munday, while they remain on the farm. Should any one of the above named children or heirs marry at any time they are to have their equal proportion of the entire personal or perishable property and chattels allotted to them. When the time arrives that neither of my three daughters above mentioned remains single it is my will that then all of my real estate above mentioned be sold and that the proceeds of said sale be equally divided among all of the heirs of my body, including in addition to the aforesaid Nancy Catharine Munday, Lizzee White Munday Ina Lee Munday, Robert Harrison Munday and Thomas Finley Munday Charles Franklin Munday Philip Henry Munday, Mary Ann Munday, now Mary Ann Mayfield, Margaret Jane Munday, now Margaret Jane Dixon, Samuel Lawler Munday, Sarah Eliza Munday, now Sarah Eliza Peckitt, James William Munday and Margery Frances Munday now Margery Frances

Booker. As provision is made in a former clause of this will for either of the first five mentioned children, to-wit: Nancy Catharine Munday Lizzy White Munday, Ina Lee Munday Robert Harrison Munday and Thomas Finley Munday (all of whom are single) to have upon their marriage their equal part (which includes and fifth) of all the personal or perishable property and chattels distributed to them, it is my will that the residue of said personal effects be equally divided amongst the remaining four, at the time of their respective marriages, or at the time of the sale of the real estate as aforesaid. Now having disposed of all my earthly effects I hereby appoint Samuel H. Lawler as Guardian for my three minor children to-wit: Lizzy White Munday, Thomas Finley Munday and Ina Lee Munday. He is also to have full control of the ^{two} lots at Franklin until they are sold.

I also appoint Robert Harrison Munday Executor of this my last will and testament Given under my hand this 20th day 1874
